International VAT-Conference14th and 15th June 2012*at Seehotel Übersee, Lake Tegernsee (Munich)

The focus of the International VAT Conference is the discussion of current VAT issues at both the academic and practical level. The conference panel consists of international experts drawn from the EU Commission, the OECD, the tax administration, universities and from leading international corporations.

Conference participants will have the opportunity to raise questions relating to their day to day business and to participate in panel and audience discussions.

With its solution based focus, delegates will leave the conference having been provided with real insight into how to better manage their respective VAT issues. Naturally, all sessions will be supported by extensive documentation which delegates will undoubtedly find to be a valuable future business resource after the conclusion of the conference.

So come and join the discussion on VAT's hot topics and enjoy the opportunity of networking with other attendees and speakers from all Member States.

Who should join: VAT Managers, VAT consultants, officials dealing with VAT.
