Event Description:

Value Added Tax is a common form of tax used all over the world. Although the principles of the tax are broadly the same everywhere, the rules vary by country. In this seminar, you will learn the basics of VAT, its importance on European supply chain, simple techniques for optimizing your VAT position, and VAT in your ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) System.

Here's what you'll obtain from this seminar:

- Understand the concept of VAT
- Understand how VAT impacts your European Supply Chain
- Start to identify potential VAT sensitivities and opportunities within your company's operations and billing/accounting systems

PANEL OF SPEAKERS

- Mark Houtzager - US VAT Inc. - New York
- Raymond Feen - AIVAT, The Hague - The Netherlands
- Angela Myers, Partner & COO - Taxaccord
